REBEL NEWS.

The Battle Near Winchester. The Charlottesville Chronicle derives the following particulars of the battle near Winchester on Monday, from an intelligent officer who was present on the occasion : About daylight the enemy advanced by the Berryville road on Ramseur, who was posted at the Spout Spring, on the same road, some four miles east of Winchester. Gordon was at Bunker Hill, on the Martinsburg road, on a reconnoissance; Rhodes was at Hopewell Church, near Whitehall, to the left of the Martinsburg road, about eight miles below Winchester. About daylight, Gordon, and, about 7 a. m., Rhodes commenced moving back to the point of attack. Wharton remained on the extreme left, on the Martinsburg road, a short distance below Winchester. About 10 or 11 a. m. all of our troops were on the field, our line facing east, the enemy facing west. Ramseur stretched from Abraham creek to the Berryville pike, Rhodes had taken position between him and Gordon, Wharton, as we have stated, holding the left. The battle now bore strongly towards our left.

About half-past twelve. General Rhodes, who was placing a battery in the gap between himself and Gordon, was struck by a ball, just behind the ear, and borne from the field, in a dying condition. He was attended at the time by only two couriers. The enemy continued to push their line around the left, and about 4 p. m., their cavalry on their extreme right lapped our lines some two miles. This (avalry charged our cavalry, and completely routed it, and then wheeled into Winchester, on our rear. This made it necessary for our nfantry to fall back; which it did, slowly, eaching Winchester about dark. The whole army then retreated on that evening to Newtown, and the next morning to Fisher's Hill. a mile or two from Strasburg, where it is now posted. This is eighteen miles from Winchester, and a position of great strength-having the North Mountain on the left and Massanul ten Mountain on the right.

The battle is described as a very severe one; the loss on both sides heavy-theirs supposed to be greater than ours. We took some 500 or 700 prisoners—more than we lost. Averill is reported killed, but this is not authenticated. We lost three guns, and, of course, left some of our wounded in the hands of the enemy. The ambulances of the army, which were loaded with wounded, came off safely. With this qualification, we brought off our wagons, artillery, &c. There was considerable straggling on our part.

Richmond papers also have the following: Grant Reinforced. The Richmond Whig of September 21th says: Heavy reinforcements to Grant's army are still coming in. The enemy are very vigilast on our right, evidently fearing an attack on the Weldon railroad. Georgia. MEREDIAN, September 20 .- Martin's Brigade tore up the track between Atlanta and Dalton. GRIFFIN, September 21.—One thousand of our men were exchanged at Rough and Ready The oath of allegiance was offered at Atlanta, and freely taken by many prisoners-say one entire Georgia regiment. There had been no movement of the enemy from Atlanta up to last night, and nothing is known of the whereabouts of our army. GRIFFIN, September 21 .- The enemy were skirmishing with Hood's army near Fairburn yesterday afternoon.

A train of Yankee prisoners went up to Rough and Ready last night, to be exchanged. The ten days' truce expired to-night. A number of guerillas, en route from Smithfield to Louisville, overpowered the guard on the boat, and forced a landing. Farragut does not design attacking Mobile at present. Sherman has issued an order forbidding all citizens to come this side of Nashville from Twenty-five thousand prisoners have been moved from Andersonville to Savannah and Bull's GAP, September 22 .- Gen. Vaugn drove the enemy from Blue Springs this morn-ing, capturing twelve prisoners. The enemy are strongly fortified at Bull's Gap.

Early's defeat at Winchester is explained by facts generally well understood in this city, but it is not expedient to give greater publicity to. Suffice it to say, they in no wise reflect upon the commander, officer, or men. All that valor and skill could do was done in the late

CIRCULAR.
In accordance with instructions from Brigadier General D. H. Rucker, Chief Quartermaster, Depot of Washington, I have placed schooners at Upper and Lower Cedar Points, in the positions occupied by the ght boats, previous to their destruction by the rebels. From sunset until sunrise a light will be swung from each of the schooners. The reason given by captains of vessels, chartered and owned by the United States Quartermaster Department, for anchoring in the Petomac river at night, was, anchoring in the Petomac river at night, was, that they feared that they would run their vessels aground if they attempted to run past the shoals after dark. The lamps placed on the schooners will give a light sufficintly streng to enable all pilots to pass up and down the river with safety, provided they govern themselves by the charts provided by United States Coast Survey.

From and after this date, no vessel propelled by steam will be allowed to anchor, excepting in such weather as by running the loss of the vessel or cargo might be endangered.

All masters of vessels are directed to report any neglect on the part of the parties on board of the light schooners, in not keeping their lights burning at all hours of the night.

A copy of this circular will be kept posted in the pilot house of every vessel owned and chartered by the Government, plying on the Potomac rive
